The U.S. Public-Private Standardization System: A Critical Tool for a Strong Economy and Nation

Join us for a dialogue on the benefits of the U.S. public-private standardization system and how the consensus process can help in the development of solutions to public policy issues, such as safety, cybersecurity, smart grid, incorporation by reference, and more.

Speaker presentations will be followed by a question-and-answer period. Brown bag lunch will be provided.

Speakers

- S. Joe Bhatia, President and CEO, American National Standards Institute (ANSI)
- Paul R. Verkuil, Chairman, Administrative Conference of the United States (ACUS)
- George Arnold, Director, Standards Coordination Office, National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST)

Friday, June 7, 2013 ■ 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. ■ House Judiciary, Rayburn 2226

This will be a widely attended event. Pre-registration is not required.
